Day 2 - Delhi

Visit the famous Jama Masjid, Dargah Qutub Sahib and Nizamuddin Dargah.

Indulge in a healthy breakfast followed by a visit to Jama Masjid, Dargah Qutub Sahib and Nizamuddin Dargah.

Jama Masjid is the largest mosque in India. Situated on a mound in the heart of the erstwhile capital of the Mughals, this impressive red sandstone structure projects beautifully into the Old Delhi skyline with a courtyard capable of holding 25,000 devotees. It is indeed one of the most significant holy places of Islam in India. Our representative will ensure you have a peaceful moment of prayer here.

Dargah Qutub Sahib is another place that is significant for Muslims which is situated near Gandak ki Baoli in the Mehrauli village. Qutubuddin was the disciple and spiritual successor of Khwaja Moinuddin Chishti of Ajmer. It is also believed that one, who truly believes in the saint should make a wish by tying a thread near the grave. So make your wishes as you pray to the Almighty.

Nizamuddin Dargah is the marble shrine of the Sufi saint, Nizam-ud-din Auliya and a notable point of pilgrimage for Muslims. The dargah is one of the most extraordinary places to listen to Sufi music and qawwali (Islamic devotional singing) at sunset.

Let the divine music fill your very being before you are escorted to the hotel by our representative.

The evening is at leisure for independent activities.

Notes:-

- Guest need almost 2-3 hours to visit entire Jama Masjid
- Dargah Qutub Sahib requires 30 mins to visit and 15 mins walk from parking

- Nizamuddin Dargah is 1 km away from parking, guest can take cycle rickshaw and get down near dargah.
